C. Sganl:

Recently my cable bill took quite a jump, as Warner determined I was receiving more channels than my contract allowed (the fault of my cable-ready set). As a retired, widowed senior citizen, I debated between accepting the higher rate or discontinuing cable altogether. I finally decided to keep the cable. How glad I am!

Since last Saturday I have spent countless hours of enjoyment & enlightenment sharing in the inauguration of our new President. I felt at all times not just a spectator but somehow a participant. All interviewers & interviewees were well prepared & informative without monopolizing the time to be filled.

Questions & comments from call-in listeners were handled respectfully & pleasantly.

Many, many thanks for a wonderful job, done as it should be done!

Sincerely,
