Mr. Lamb,

First of all, let me congratulate you and C-SPAN for the excellent coverage you give on political issues. I also want to thank you for your wonderful interview with Ross Perot in Dallas and also the fact that it was re-run so many times on C-SPAN. It has been reported, and, if so, I am outraged, that two at least, of the major networks have refused him time ^{ABC + CBS} - time paid for out of his own pocket. In addition, I am very grateful for your coverage of Canada's issues - The panel of journalists discussing politics and the news media some time ago and your recent coverage of the pre-election debates of Canadian candidates running for the office of Prime Minister.

In the record, I am a Canadian-born from Toronto - raised and educated in that area, lived in Montreal for five years. I am an American citizen

- married an American who was involved in international hotels and aviation - he worked with Pete Heberoth. And he was also a consultant to international airlines (commercial) including Saudi Arabia, Panama and Ecuador. I have been most fortunate and have lived a good life, circulated in the best of circles. I am a former thirty-year voting Republican, a registered Democrat as of 1988 and voted and worked for Ross Perot last year and continue to be a strong supporter of "this 'crazy', - 'wacky', - 'kooky' - demagogue

Now to get on with some serious business. A couple of weeks ago, Chris Matthews was on C-SPAN and a caller inquired about the Council on Foreign Relations and the Trilateral Commission. He squirmed a little, twisted his face, squirmed a little more, then responded with this very intellectual, all-knowing remark that they were a part of the Lyndon LaRouche operations and connected to some "right-wing Trots." Be it "right-wing" left wing, in the middle or over the cliff, I don't care. I want to know the truth and will settle for nothing less.

Then this past week, another caller asked about the Trilateral Commission and the Council on Foreign Relations. To which you inquired of the caller just where did you get the list? You seemed surprised that a list was available to the public. Julie Johnson of TIME announced by simply stating that she was not knowledgeable about the list of members and I find that very hard to believe. I had just read this past week in my usual digging for "Truth" that David Rockefeller had addressed the Bilderberg meeting in June of '91 in Baden-Baden, Germany and this is what he said:

"We are grateful to the Washington Post, the New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meetings and respected their promises of discretion for almost forty years."

David Rockefeller has said it not me. He is simply thanking the US media for their silence, their non-reporting, in keeping the American people in the dark. Time magazine certainly did not report on that private and secret meeting nor any other meeting of the Bilderberg, the TC or the CFR. They are sworn to secrecy. This, sir, borders on a totalitarian regime. It certainly is not democratic and it has been going on for decades in secret. Needless to say, I wrote to Julie Johnson and was very unladylike in my response to her avoidance of a very important issue. What do they do with their journalists and writers - take them aside and tell them that under no circumstances are these groups to be discussed. I find it unbelievable that seldom if ever does a question arise among the media - as vast as it is, perhaps thousands, regarding these groups. - Perhaps, ^{only by} Sarah McClendon, la grande dame of the Washington Press Corps, and a woman whom I highly respect. She, too, wants the Truth and will settle for nothing less. Something is rotten in Denmark, and it stinks from the head down.

If I, as a non-professional, can do it anyone can do it and that is to search for the facts. I am neither an attorney, a politician nor a journalist.
But, I must tell you that as a Canadian born and an American citizen, I must do everything in my power to defend weak nations from the hands of slaved Rockefeller and his international gangster his robber barons, his money lords whose only "god" is "Haly Profits" the "almighty Buck." Davids an eccentrics men horse thieves, rapists, child molesters and bigamists and they continue unabated to this day.

"For the safety of the republic, we now decree that the dangerous conspiracy must be ended by November 15, 1911."

"Thus wrote the U. S. Supreme Court in its historic decision in the Rockefeller Standard Oil criminal prosecution by the U. S. Department of Justice. Unfortunately, the decree has been evaded and the conspiracy continues unabated and in ever more aggravated form, "eighty-two years later."

We recently saw the presence of four presidents in Washington standing before the television cameras with world-wide coverage promoting NAFTA.

 NAFTA and GATT are a part of this infamous New World Order that George Bush tried to thrust down our throats and I do not buy the lie. It is a part of Rockefeller's intent on a global takeover.
 The membership of all four presidents in these three groups is never discussed not even during presidential elections. Gerald Ford is a CFR member.
 James Earl Carter is a Trilateralist, especially chosen by David Rockefeller and hand-picked in 1973 from the State of Georgia and groomed by Greg Zbigniew whom by the way has two degrees from McGill University but not political science. I checked it out I used to work in the alumni office at McGill. George Bush was a director of the CFR 1977-79 and is also a CFR member. "Slick Willie," as he has been called, is a Bilderberg member as of '91 and a seven-year TCF member. Then add to that his schooling by Cecil Rhodes a man involved with the Round Table of England - another secret organization well groomed in the art of secrecy and deception, I would say. Since all these presidents are promoting a oneworld government, they are guilty of an impeachable offense. I am outraged at this fraud and deception not only the silence by our media during elections, but the overall deception of these presidents. We have a great chance when we go to the polls. We can have a democrat who is a TC member or we can have a republican who is both a TC and CFR member both doing the bidding and carrying out Danah and Ken's agenda. Big chances. To wonder Ross Perot took the hits from NBC, and Peter Jennings at ABC and his six or seven attack dogs. Perhaps, he was afraid to do it alone. I recently wrote to Jennings and was forthright about how I viewed his allegiance to ABC and our "secret" and "shadow" and "invisible government." I told him he was not only unfaithful to his wife because of the recent expose about his love affair, but he was also a traitor to the Canadian people and the American people about this massive fraud and deception in the media. Many who have dared to oppose these secret operators have found themselves falling from high rise buildings or suffering from some fatal disease. The best of power and the crowing thereof can only be described as psychopathic behavior.

Perhaps Bush saw the so-called "humanitarian" aid in Somalia as "God's Work." On the other hand, I saw it as the work of Satan for I think there had to be a little, just a little evil involved, as reported by the Toronto Press and the L.A. Times of Jan 19, 1993. These international gangsters are guilty of greed, and avaricious behavior. They have been hunting after the possessions of other nations for decades. They have plundered and raped. They have been involved (many CFR members) secretly negotiating foreign policy, using our military for exploitation, including two "NO-WIN" wars in Vietnam and Korea. It is an outrage of the great est magnitude that "OUR" media have been accomplices to their crimes.

One other organization which needs to be mentioned is the United Nations - another instrument for Rockefeller and his cabal. - his super-crow oligarchy. The Rockefeller family did not pay $8.5M in 1947 for the land for the U.N just as the Rockefellers and the super powerful could sit in some posh office, pontificating with a view of the East River. There are sixty-six Resolutions of the Security Council on Israel dating from #101 of Nov 24, 1953 to #799 of Dec 19, 1992 and not a damn thing has been done. This is the same group that was involved in those no-win wars. I do not want to see some dirty, filthy, blood-stained rag flying over Ottawa or Washington or any other nation's capital. The stars and stripes need not be replaced by that blue and white rag. Nor do we need to subject our brave and courageous men and women in our military to taking orders from less-than-professional foreign leaders, ^{and commended} leaving them open to being maimed and slaughtered with blood spilled or raped and dragged through some God-forsaken foreign town. If David Rockefeller and his international gangsters are determined to be global exploiters and let them supply her own army, and let us have ours solely for national defense purposes not the raping and plundering of other nations for "Holy profits," and financial gain.

Rev. Pat Robertson considers the U.N. a "joke" as described in his expose of the CFR and the TC in his book "The New World Order." It says "It is rife with fraud, paintless debates, internal mismanagement, and ludicrous behavior." It is "an example of bureaucracy run amok," he states.

"The U.N. has become a trap.

Let's go it alone."

- former U.S. Senator Robert Taft

"Until my dying day, I will regret signing the United Nations Charter."

- former U.S. Senator Patrick McCarran

"The time has come to recognize the United Nations for the anti-American anti-freedom organization that it has become."

- former U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater

"Put the nations of the world ^{con-}tinues marching forward, step by step, into a U.N.-led global tyranny."

- "Global Tyranny... Step by Step"

by William F. Jasper.

I am aware that it has required a very lengthy letter, but it had to be said, for I am deeply concerned about these scoundrels and traitors who operate behind closed doors, guarded walls, in secret with "our" medals sworn to secrecy. This nation is in very serious trouble with a less-than-honorable Federal Reserve, secret operators within the White House, the Administration and Congress. Crime is tearing apart our cities and it is more important to be involved in global exploration and exploitation than hauling the drugs, drugs brought into our country by our own government guns tearing up our cities, foreign visitors shot down in Florida, schools being neglected because of lack of finances but we seem to have plenty of billions for a war in Iraq or sending our troops all over the world, while we don't have financial support for what is badly needed at home. Our "Justice" Department is rattled to the core. There are at least ten murders connected to the Inland case - one being Alan Michael Ray in San Francisco and not a damn thing done about it. Janet Reno takes her big broom and sweeps it under the rug. Like all the other corruption from previous administrations, Drugs and arms flowed into Nevada, Arkansas. And what did we do, with the Governor of that state? We put him in the White House. The nation is simply going to hell.

Should you not have a current list of the Trilateral members, contact them at [REDACTED] - The most recent being September 1993 which I recently requested. And the Council on Foreign Relations have their membership list in their Annual Report obtainable by calling [REDACTED] And I have enclosed the 1993 list of attendees at the Bilderberg meeting in Vouliagmeni Greece in April. I can't believe that you do not have this information. It is a most frightening list of secret operators, scoundrels and traitors who are willing to shred our Constitution and tear down our sovereign borders on behalf of David Rockefeller and his super-rich oligarchy - his global conspiracy of unscrupulous men and women. The enemy is within like a Trojan horse. It is "money power" as predicted by Abraham Lincoln that will destroy this great nation from within. It will not be some foreign intruder that will destroy the republic. "Money power" is the culprit and deceiver. And it is only Truth that will set America free.

"With no apologies," to quote Barry Goldwater, I am

Sincerely,

NEWS BLACKOUT BY U.S. PRESS

Secret Bilderberg Meeting

The secret meeting of the Bilderberg group, which took place this year in Greece, determined many of the headlines and news developments you will read about in the coming months. But the Establishment media completely blacked it out.

EXCLUSIVE TO THE SPOTLIGHT

BY JAMES P. TUCKER JR.

VOULIAGMENI, Greece—Behind the guarded walls of the elite Nafsika Astir Palace Hotel, situated high on a hill a few miles south of Athens, the secret Bilderberg group plotted to exploit the rich natural resources of the former Soviet Union and Indochina.

Also high on the Bilderberg agenda is establishment of a new, huge United Nations bureaucracy on the environment, so the industrialists can reap immense profits from new technology to clean the world's air and water.

They also celebrated the collaboration of one of their own, President Bill Clinton.

"It's really a direct message to us through the newspapers," said Dwayne Andreas, referring to reports that Clinton promised to sign the Rio Treaty, which calls for billions of American tax dollars to be circulated around the world in the name of a "clean environment."

"Yes, and he's doing it early in his first term," said Andreas's companion. "George [Bush] wanted to wait until his second term, make a few changes to pacify the American right. Bill seems to understand that if certain things go undone in a first term, there may be no second term."

It was the first indication that there may have been a Bilderberg "tilt" toward Clinton to punish Bush for stalling on the Rio Treaty and resisting more new taxes after his broken pledge of 1990 turned into political suicide.

LONGTIME MEMBER BUSH

Bush is a longtime member of the Trilateral Commission, which also holds annual closed-door meetings and has interlocking leadership with the senior Bilderberg group. Clinton had been a Trilateralist for seven years and was promoted to the Bilderberg in 1991. Thus, the world shadow government owned both presidential candidates in a typical win-win race.

"If George [had had] a second term, he [might] have moved on health care and new taxes, since he would not have worried about reelection. And he certainly would have signed the Rio Treaty, possibly with a little political posturing by insisting on nit-picking changes," Andreas said.

"But we would not have fast action, as with Clinton," said the other.

The Rio Treaty calls for establishing a UN commission on the environment. Americans will pay most of a multibillion-dollar program to clean the air and water, preserve topsoil and prevent erosion in undeveloped countries. The rationale is that Americans consume and pollute more than the rest of the world.

Adding a new UN agency to police the environment among once-sovereign nations also advances the Bilderberg goal of turning the UN into a de jure—rather than de facto—world government.

FOREIGN COMMANDER IN CHIEF

Thus, Bilderberg also celebrated public acceptance of a permanent UN army, in which Americans would fight under a foreign commander who would be accountable only to the Security Council, not the president or Congress.

They found it significant that Americans remaining in Somalia are serving under a Turkish general under UN command and, contrary to the Constitution, the president is not their commander in chief.

There will be "more and more Somalias to help the world become accustomed to UN supremacy," said one. "There must be at least five places on Earth so full of misery that we can break American hearts whenever we choose."

There was much discussion of the fighting in Bosnia, but most Europeans urged Americans to shun air strikes and simply enforce the economic embargo.

"It would not be like Somalia, with few casualties and pictures of soldiers feeding starving children," one said. "Planes will be shot down, airmen will die. And if you get into ground action, there will be many casualties."

"You can't compare it to the Persian Gulf, either, where the terrain made it easy to deploy an overwhelming force, bomb Iraq into rubble, take few casualties and proclaim a great victory," said another. "Your people will not see this as some sort of sporting contest."

AIR STRIKES IN BOSNIA

Nevertheless, Bilderberg sources said Americans from the State and Defense departments joined NATO Secretary-General Manfred Woerner in calling for the UN to authorize air strikes.

The name as heck "omit" news

"There will be much for the UN forces to do in the years ahead, of the type that will gain public acceptance for its role anywhere in the world," said another. "UN troops could go into Sudan with food supplies if we made an issue of the people starving there and spread films of misery on the network news."

Bilderberg men expressed some nervousness about getting all West European states to surrender their national sovereignty to a European super state under the terms of the Maastricht Treaty (see related story, page 5) but were confident the North American Free Trade Agreement would be ratified. This too is important to the Bilderberg goal of a world government.

A third "regional government" is to be formed in the Pacific Rim, and the UN is to be the seat of the world government.

To exploit the natural resources of the former Soviet Union and in Indochina, Bilderberg agreed to establish a "High Council" of 12 members.

A committee was named to select the 12.

Members must be "of such status that they have instant access to heads of state and parliamentary leaders throughout the world," a Bilderberg speaker said.

The 12 will pressure Western nations to send more and more billions to the former Soviet Union. They will claim credit for this help in talking with the leaders of the former Soviet republics.

The 12 will then demand of the republics the right, at an absurdly low price, to extract oil, gold and other precious metals. "The gold in the ground, the oil undrilled, do you no good," the 12 will argue. "Cooperating on this will mean that we continue to use our influence to get more financial assistance from the West."

It is a typical Bilderberg project: Use public funds—the lion's share coming from American taxpayers—to "pay" for the right to extract oil and precious metals from the former Soviet Union and reap immense profits.

The only barrier to exploiting the resources in Indochina is America's refusal to "normalize" relations with Vietnam until the POW-MIA issue is resolved (see related story, page 5).

The Bilderbergers are considering urging the Vietnamese government to take a dramatic step: Admit that some communist troops held some Americans after the war ended and shot them all a few months later. Hanoi is to say, under this scenario, that the officer who ordered the executions was shot as punishment, it was done against orders from the communist regime, that Vietnam apologizes and wants normal relations.

"It may take something dramatic like this," one said. "Otherwise, the issue may never go away."

The Bilderberg group's concern is oil, not American soldiers being held as slaves in filthy prison camps. ●

WHO'S DEPRAVED?

At the dedication of the Holocaust Museum, here in Washington on April 22, President Clinton said,

Look at the depraved and insensate bands now loose in the modern world . . . the liars and the propagandists among us, the skinheads and the Liberty Lobby here at home, the Afrikaners Resistance Movement in South Africa, the radical party of Serbia, the Russian Black Shirts.

Elitists Say: 'Don't Ask Questions'

The following is the text of a "press release" issued by the Bilderberg group, but which was distributed to no news group or media outlet and which was obtained from Bilderberg sources.

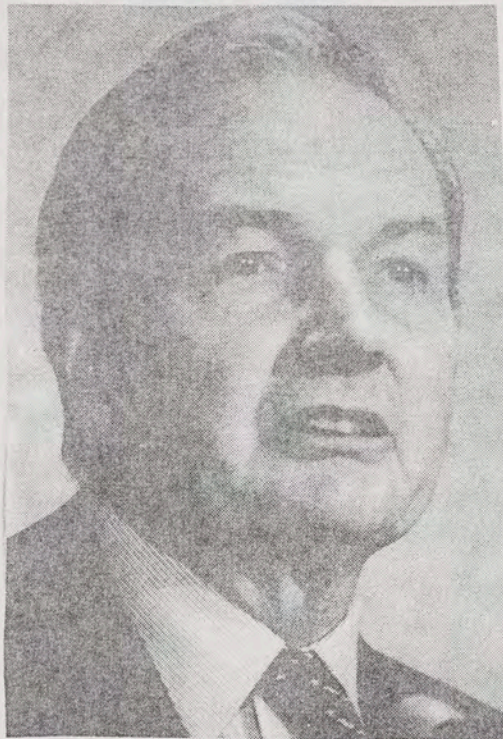

Vouliagmeni, Thursday April 22, 1993

The 41st Bilderberg Meeting will be held at the Nafsika Astir Palace Hotel, Vouliagmeni, Greece, April 22-25, 1993, to address the following subjects:

- What Kind of Europe Will the U.S. Have to Deal With?
- Cost of Indifference Toward the Former Soviet Union
- U.S. Foreign Policy
- U.S. Domestic Policy Concerns
- Restoring Confidence in Leadership and Institutions
- The Outlook for Japan's Economy
- Prospects for Global Trade

Approximately 115 participants from North America and Western Europe will attend the discussions. The meeting is private in order to encourage frank and open discussion.

Bilderberg takes its name from the Bilderberg Hotel in Oosterbeek, Holland where the first meeting took place in May, 1954. That meeting grew out of the concern on both sides of the Atlantic that Western Europe and North America were not working together as closely as they should on matters of critical importance. It was felt that regular, off-the-record discussions would contribute to a better understanding of the complex forces and major trends affecting Western nations.

What is unique about Bilderberg as a forum is (1) the broad cross-section of leading citizens, in and out of government, that are assembled for nearly three days of purely informal discussion about topics of current concern especially in the fields of foreign affairs and the international economy, (2) the strong feeling among participants that in view of the differing attitudes and experiences of the Western nations, there is a continuous, clear need to develop an understanding in which these concerns can be accommodated, and (3) the privacy of the meetings, which have [i.e., has] no purpose other than to allow leading citizens to speak their minds openly and freely.

At the meetings, no resolutions are proposed, no votes taken, and no policy statements issued. In short, Bilderberg is a flexible and informal international leadership forum in which different viewpoints can be expressed and mutual understanding enhanced.

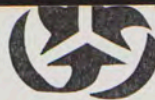

To ensure full discussion, individuals representing a wide range of political and economic points of view are invited. Two-thirds of the participants come from Western Europe and the remainder from the United States and Canada. Within this framework, on average about one-third are from government sector and the remaining two-thirds from a variety of fields including finance, industry, labor, education and the media. Participants are solely invited for their knowledge, experience and standing and with reference to the topics on the agenda.

All participants attend Bilderberg in a private and not in an official capacity.

Participants have agreed not to give interviews to the press during the meeting. In contacts with the news media after the conference it is an established rule that no attribution should be made to individual participants of what was discussed during the meeting.

There will be no press conference. A list of participants is appended. ●

Influence or control of money, mail, media, military, IRS, tax courts, commerce, energy, unions, domestic and foreign policy, etc. provides an apparent opportunity for massive fraud, robbery, and control of the American people!
