Dear CSPAN,

002594 MAY 27 93

I, like millions of other people, have come to rely on CSPAN to get extended views of difficult questions. You must know how important your programs are to the country.

On May 22, I watched the Accuracy in Media presentation on Gay and Lesbian issues.

Thank you for presenting it. It is impossible to get unbiased, uncensored views like this on major issues on other television outlets.

I really appreciate the way you simply let your cameras run, and then people have a chance to make up their own minds.

I am sure that the program polarized your viewers, and I hope you are ready for the deluge of comments, like this one.

But the most important point is not the content of your programs, but the fact that you present it simply and in an unbiased way.

Please don't ever let the pressure you may get influence your decisions to broadcast programs.

This country is mature enough to include all points of view, whether they are atheist, religious, pro-or-anti-homosexuality, or politics to the right or left.

I would like to see a third CSPAN channel devoted exclusively to press conferences.

Steven Sully, Lew Burdette, Susan Swain, and your other on-air people do professional and OUTSTANDING jobs. So do the people BEHIND THE CAMERAS, and IN THE OFFICES, such as the person who is reading this letter. Thank You!!!

No reply is necessary.

Yours very truly,
