Dear Eminent Mr. Lamb:

It is never too late to say thank you for the great mental accomplishment of the Lincoln-Douglas debate.

The etiquette and fine
manners of all the cities is never to be forgotten.
Thank you fine cities and citizens. Your passion were great. Hate
are great on NEWS.

My Lat. & Greek
 were beyond my saying how lovely dignified -
 and girls in bonnets -
 the styles for the women so complimented all figures, More such fashion is needed - consult Moret.
 in parks etc -

No police in sight
 during the series.

Cool it!!!

Sedition talk to encourage rebellion
in the military - even in uniform - as urged by a few in Congress and other groups
must be controlled
because of fanatics &

A series of programs
in low trade works -
could be a national treasure handled by
you Mr. Lamm.

Most respectfully,
