

March 31, 1994

Dear Mr. Lamb,

You certainly can't accuse C-Span of being liberal.

One week of the Wall Street Journal and now a week of US News & World Report.

Also, it seems there is disproportionate coverage of Conservative think-tank meetings and seminars.

Whitewater has one plus. It's revealed to people outside the Beltway how sick the N. A. media is. One big national tabloid.

I watch a good deal of C-Span.

You've been a bit more restrained.

One minor point. I know you want your staff to be low key - get out of the way of responses, but sometimes the C-Span interviewer is hardly seen. That gets a bit spooky.

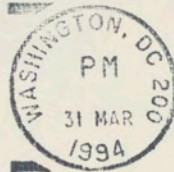

When a dialogue is going on, let's see both parties.

The anchors or interrogators on C-Span are all great.

Sincerely

Washington, D.C. 20024

Washington, DC 20024

Mr. Brian Lamb
C- Span
400 No. Capital St.
Washington, DC 2

0112