Dear Brian,

God bless you and Happy New Year!!

Just a small note of thanks for all the programs you present!! Your C-Span has been such a great teaching example for Americans. If they but have 'eyes to see'.

One of my favorites is your Booknotes. The avid interest that you portray in reading hopefully will infect millions! I could go on for pages telling you how much I appreciate your dedication, but I would not get my point across. Suffess it to say that kindred spirite read each other's hearts.

A bible believer, I understand fully the suggestion that 'as the information is needed..it will appear'.

My thoughts have turned to this Renaissance action in S.C. At the same time, I was priv^{ileged} to hear an author/exorcist; Malachi Martin Speak and encourage listeners to buy his book; Windswept House. I was so impressed by him, that I bought the book and am only 'into' it, but am so astenished at the information in it, that I just had to write and ask you to get it also! This is not his first book, he has 15 previous books. They will be on my list to read when I have finished this. My point is..... when I pondered on this 'First Family' homage to S.C, the book explaining it appeared. Need I say more?

Keep up the good work Brian, your viewers who inderstand your purpose can never thank you enough!

After watching your book-note interviews, I say Barbara Walters....you may be getting the big bucks, but Brian Lamb has out done you in the interviewing dept. Of course I'm prejudiced, I love you!

God bless all your new years,

 in Oregon
