Gentlemen:

While reading the July 4th 1994 Time magazine I was amazed and very upset to read that C-span is dumping Brian Lamb's program.

We will cancel the cable if this is true.

News, sports and C-span programs and some public ones are all the TV that we watch.

We particularly enjoy Brian Lamb and Steven Seully because they are low-key and informative.

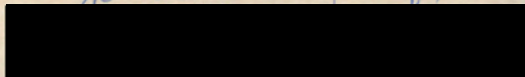

Always try to watch their book reviews.

TV has become very trivial and boring and seems to appeal to the younger set.

People in the media

should realize that many newly retired watchers have more time and money to spend on the advertised
products.

yours truly,
