Dear Mr. Lamb,

002594 MAY 1993

I have never written a fan letter before, but must confess that I have become a loyal fan of yours.

My husband retired four years before I did, and I always teased him about his allegiance to C-Span. It was on when I left for work and on when I returned; he calls and writes our local cable company monthly to put on C-Span II to no avail.

Now that I have some leisure hours I have found that I, too, have become a C-Span junkie. The House sessions do not hold our attention as much as the guest/call-in portions do. It seems to be the one channel that really presents issues. It is difficult, if not impossible, to figure out the political leaning of any C-Span host/ess and usually both sides seem to be presented fairly, even if we tend to favor a conservative slant.

Every now and then a guest does get obnoxious, and my husband gets so upset I have to threaten him that I will lock out C-Span by entering one of the Parental Control Codes that we have on our TV set. The most recent was Congressman Blackwell. Susan tried her hardest to keep him focused on the subject but he would not do so. If he is ever a guest again, we will switch it off immediately.

I do wish we could get through to speak to some of your guests. We have a "busy dial" feature on our phone that dials for ten minute stretches, but even using that, we have never been able to connect. Maybe someday. In the meantime, keep up the good work!

Sincerely,
