Dear Brian,

I found the discussion on "Talk Shows' Impact on National Politics" very illuminating!! For one thing, they have it exactly backwards (the forum). Those of us who listen to Rush think it is the "so-called mainstream media" that skewers things, most often by their sins of omission as much as their sins of commission.

By the way, I am college educated, listen to Rush, listen to C-span, listen to CNN, read the Wall Street Journal, the Dallas Morning News, and the Austin American Statesman. I am not ignorant.
