Dear C-SPAN:

Enjoy your station thoroughly! You allow people to learn the facts firsthand without the spin of the biased media. Thank you.

Could you confirm one of your programs for me? Over a year ago when you were televising some of the Democratic presidential primaries, you caught a "goof" by Senator Bob Kerrey of Nebraska. You had him on air telling a dirty, lesbian joke for which he had to later apologize. If my memory serves me correct, he was telling that joke to another candidate, unknown at the time. My memory re-calls that person to be then Gov. Clinton. Am I correct??

I just want to confirm the truth because of the one-sided bashing of Republicans for similar statements and the media would never confirm my question if it is true the other person was Clinton. The media would ignore my request. I'm just interested in the truth.

Thank you.
