

C-Span,

12/2

This last Saturday or Sunday I saw Salman Rushdie on C-Span around noon or so. He was answering questions from various members of the press. After he was finished, there was an address on the screen of where you could write to him. I didn't get the address so if you could send me that, it would be very appreciated. Also, could you send me a copy of his press conference as well? I didn't get to see very much of it and kind of want it on tape. Thank you a lot for your good work on handling all the things going on in Washington. And thank you for what you can do.
