

Oct. 20, 1992

C-Span: -

Your series Return to Vietnam, didn't fill you with disgust to see all those children or embryos preserved in alcohol?

I guess I give the human race credit that it didn't have coming. Even science has a limit to where it is civilized and where it lives in the realm of neanderthal.

"No, Free trade
for slave labor Industries

} Thank you.

Bloomington, Ill. 6/70/

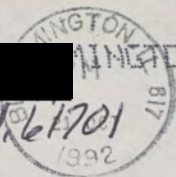

"You know what bothers me about most of what you people do, when you look for sympathy for the poor people on this planet you always fail to show how the governing factors of those nations live and the conditions they live under, why is that?

Don't know too why C-Span hasn't looked more into what Arkansas really is like and presented that to the American public.

C-Span has taken on the idea that it can sit on its behind, and not help the ~~the~~ citizens to see and know the truth.

[Redacted]

Bloomington, IL 61701

C-Span
400 N. Capitol St.
Washington
D. C. 20001