C-span Person:

Thank you for televising the 4/25/93 Gay & Lesbian March on Washington. I was deeply moved by this historic, revolutionary event.
I am a bisexual male who just recently came out in Chicago, my home town before a group of over 100 people.
It was very heartening to see such a plethora of my sisters and brothers on television.
I particularly enjoyed the speeches of the following persons:
(1) A.K. To Carver (I agree whole heartedly with her critique of the white, heterosexual permanent war economy clique

but I disagree with her put-down of the crowd present as "1 million suicidal fools." Those who remain silent in the face of the patrician of Pat Robertson & the "Christian" Coalition are the self-murders.

(2) Torie Osborne - beautiful, elegant, & no stuff;

(3) Larry Kramer - one of the most important, galvanic speakers & organizers in the nation;

(4) LYNN LAVNER, her
"I've Been a Lesbian Too Long" was musically & emotionally exquisite & very potent;
- The first lesbian I've felt sexually attracted to;

(5) Ben Chavis - I'm going to financially help the N.A.A.C.P. if they ask me to; a powerful speaker.

(6) Wm. Gibson - another conscientious black male non-hetero-sexist;

(7) David Dintins - I'm glad the mayor of America's largest city showed up to denounce the radical right & the odious ^{Hope} HERR P. Robertson (who I Dole & Kemp block from taking over the Republic Party for 1996).

(8) Ru Pan / ? visual ambrosia - I'd like to see him/her slam dunk Pat Robertson's severed head thru a basketball hoop!;

(9) Ian McKellen - the rhetorical apogee of the program; very euphonic

(10) Urush: Void - silent as

always but gorgeous & exciting to hear & view;
I really like this woman;

(11) David Hixner - he should lose 70-80 lbs. His emotional speech was galvanic & very powerful.

I watch & videotape C-Span regularly. In June, my ~~team~~ will start carrying C-Span 2. I believe C-Span, along with Court TV, is extremely important for bringing information of a political nature to Americans. I believe the ideological project & agenda of corporate TV is to beat to death the innate social conscience of every human being; - Sincerely,
