Gentlemen/Ms:

I am struck by the apparent sincerity of the media on TV to report "both sides" of Monicagate, and the vitriolicization of Clinton Vs Lewinski on local radio talk shows across the nation.

Are the radio newscasters not kept in daily contact with TV news people each day? If not, too many people are overpaid. 6.4.98

President Clinton was only one of "a million" war protestors in his youth. We now have volunteers for the Armed Forces. Obviously, it is now time to mend our wounds inasmuch as we can only go forward in time, realistically speaking.

Also, Ms. Lewinski gave all the appearance of being "star struck" by President Clinton. Now, Ms. Lewinski, reportedly mentally unstable, of course in a mild way, claims to be suffering ignominy - hardly!

It is apparent the local radio media, individually or collectively, were not "eye-witnesses" to any orgy, exhibitionism, or vilification by Mr. Clinton and/or Mrs. Lewinski. Let's leave that to the tabloids.

"There is nothing new under the sun" is the most apt definition of TV/radio so far in the nineties. Prayerfully, both will receive "new spirit" in the millennium.

Sincerely,

Washington, PA
