Dear Mr. Lamb:

Thank you for Morning Journal. The truly most fascinating parts are the incoming calls and the most painful parts have to do with the introductions and asking guests to bring additional newspaper articles beyond the one they should be allowed.

I wanted so much to watch the senate hearings on campaign finance reform, live! All the media refused to air those hearings, but you were the only person that could have influenced C-SPAN to pre-empt congress in staid session. Give to the people the exciting, unusual hearings, but not late at night after the fact.

Brian, thank you for making history with C-SPAN.

Sincerely,
