Gentlemen:

This week I watched C-Span fairly regularly, and to my annoyance mean-spirited Republicans dominated your programming. Senators Dole & Gramm, Reps. Hutchinson & Kasich not to mention the Republican College Rally, etc, etc. They all continue to rant and carp about "tax + spend" policies of the administration.

How about having Robert Rubine on to explain the White House's economic reasoning?

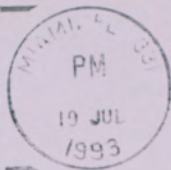

Also, I fear you are contributing to a sinister

Movement to Constantly discredit this President who is trying his utmost to solve so many unheated and Exacerbated Social problems.

Let's get some less strident
Republicans balanced with some more knowledgeable Democrats who can speak with sincerity and respect for the office of this President!

Sincerely,

P.S. I had hoped your goal was to educate, not create schisms in our country
