To whom it may concern

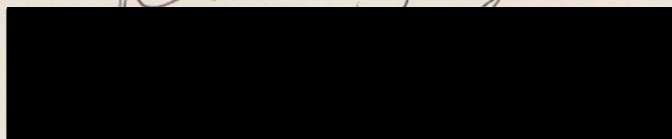

13 March 1994 at 1:00 AM I was watching a T.V. show called "The Justice Files";

To my disbelief, I saw a friend of mine on the show from about 14 years ago, named "Quanita Antfield". The show was about "Stalking". Well it seems as though she was the stalker, I missed the start of the segment, well she was like a big sister to me, and to find out that she has serious mental problems upsets me.

I would like a transcript, from the show, I remember it was in CA, she was stalking a judge. I was told my Jones Interchange is here in North Augusta, GA your T.V. station. If you don't carry this T.V. show who does? Maybe you have addresses of a producer, ect. I would appreciate any assistance you can five.

Cordially yours
