Re: Interview with Lars Erick Nelson and Mona Charen

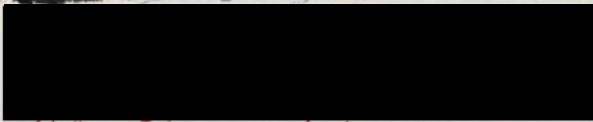

Dear Sirs:

Mona Charen is the most malicious person that you have ever had on your show. She is the female Rush Limbaugh. Calling her a journalist is like calling D'Amato a statesman. She justifies wrecking this nation for the sake of getting even with the Democrats because they caused Bush to be investigated. But of course two wrongs never did a right but you could see the utter maliciousness exuding from her as she obscured one point after the other. When she thought she had scored she would bend her head, purse her lips and restrain a smile.

I think Mr. Nelson showed remarkable restraint and it must have taken a great deal of restraint to refrain from saying anything nasty to her. She was totally out of order and think you should review her actions thoroughly before you ever have her on again. She is very aptly named ...Charon the ferryman must be proud of his namesake.

Sincerely,
