Dear Brian Lamb —

A man called this morning on Wash. Jour. referring to a website — what's-her-name-Goldberg.com — I think you — and the rest of the C-Span hosts should be aware that this man is watching the rounds on the talk shows — radio & TV, acting like an ordinary, trying-to-be-helpful caller simply letting the public know about this informative website for valuable "facts" on the political scene — when in reality, he is trying to fuel the fires of those folks who'd kill the Clintons if they thought they could get away with it - Apparently Goldberg's site talks of nothing but every Clinton Scandal anyone can think of — published, verified or even manufactured yet -

I've heard him a dozen times — several on C-Span and he always manages to get out over the air the website name & address — I think he shouldn't be allowed to continue this — no need to reply — & thanks for C-Span
