Dear Brian:

Enclosed is an exciting new book "Wonderland". As you will see, it is a true story about the Pennsbury High School Senior Prom – it's a fun and insightful Story about today's youth. One of the lead characters, Bob Costa, tried valiantly to schedule grammy star John Mayer to play the senior prom – although he failed last year – for his senior year – he succeeded and John Mayer played his first and only prom! There are myriad of wonderful characters, relationships and family experiences.

I thought this story might be interesting for your show. The author, Michael Bamberger, is a well known Sports Illustrated writer, who most recently wrote Fay Vincent's memoirs. I have known Michael for many years from Philadelphia, and I have no commercial interest other than merely helping a friend make an introduction.

Aileen and I both loved this story . . . and the way Michael tells it! Naturally, no obligation whatsoever.

All the best.

Cordially,

Enclosure

Brian - Sorry I missed the big anniversary - heard it was fabulous. Disney has been a lot of (wasted) time. All the best.
