

Dear Mr. Lamb

Cummaquid, MA 02637

On May 9, in your fascinating introduction to the De Tocqueville tour, you had a phone conversation with a delightful lady. I think her name is Ruth Savage. She lives in Kansas, and is 88 years old, and she spoke of her time in Paris and Italy in the months just before the start of World War 2.

Would it be possible to hear her speak at length on her impressions of that time? I enjoyed her so much. Thank you for C-Span.

S. Tocq

Sincerely,

Mr. Brian Lamb
