

8/13/92

Dear Bryan:

"Et tu Brutus". I really have to get this off my chest.

In July, the week before the Democrat Convention, the week of the Convention and the whole week after, there was not a single Republican to be seen on any network, including your own. I said to myself, well O.K., this is their moment in the the sun. We will have ours.

But what have we here....Everytime some Republican has a few minutes on the air, here comes a Democrat to trash what he says. Now it is the very Eve of our convention, It is 8:00 am. Thursday, I turn on C-Span, I expect I will have one of the top Republicans talking about the upcoming events instead I have Bill Clinton on my face again.

This is all so one sided it really is discouraging it is the reason that so many people are turned off. It is bad enough to have to try to fight Washington, but when the Media is also the enemy it makes it almost impossible, I always felt C-Span to be a t least neutral ground, but even you are now placing subjects in such a way, that the negatives all go to the Republicans.

Please find someone willing to speak for us and to give us at least the same fair time as the opposition.

Yours very truly,

[REDACTED]

MRS. [REDACTED]

FT LAUDERDALE, FL. 33308-3299

1999 AUG 17 92

PALM TREE, NASSAU

Winslow Homer, American, 1836-1910

Watercolor and pencil on paper, 1898

THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

Amelia B. Lazarus Fund, 1910 10.228.6

© 1985 MMA

11-08532-1

