C-SPAN/SCHOLASTIC/CLOSE-UP SECOND NATIONAL STUDENT TOWN MEETING LOOKS AT TEEN VIOLENCE

Washington, D.C., December 23, 1993 -- In February, on the C-SPAN/Scholastic/Close-Up National Student Town Meeting, a panel of policy makers will answer questions from a student audience about possible solutions to increasing teen violence in schools across America. The program will be taped in Miami shortly before airing on C-SPAN on Friday, Feb. 18 at 8:00 pm/ET and Sunday, Feb. 20 at 2:00 pm/ET.

This is the second in a series of three national student town meetings that kicked-off in December with a discussion of immigration from Los Angeles and will conclude in Washington in May with a topic to be announced.

The series is designed to give students a forum to discuss issues that directly affect their lives, and to bring their concerns to their peers and to C-SPAN viewers across the country.

C-SPAN is available in 59.8 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is funded entirely by America's cable television companies as a public service.
