Washington, D.C.

Dear sir:

I am a resolute fan of C-SPAN's Washington Journal; However, your program of 3 December '99 appalled me greatly! You had a guest ~~on~~ an anachronistic, LBJ Great Society, Left Wing, Big Government, Socialist Democrat - who was there apparently to Critique the Republican Presidential debate of 2 December 99. Not only was he out of place, He was also on for 1½ Hour - Much longer than most guests! Although Not stated, I would surmise that he was also a gay activist. He referred to George W. Bush as ignorant and represented himself as an intellectual elitist - admitting however, that he was a ~~only~~ alumnus. He did impress me very much.

I feel that your judgment at scheduling this "gentlemen" was a monstrous disservice and totally unfair to Republican viewers.
This was not representative of your usual good judgment in scheduling guests.

To level the playing field I feel you ^{should} schedule David Duke to critique the next Gore - Bradley debate - for 1½ hour! Shame on you!

Thank you,
