

JCA: S. Trahern RE: Journalist Round-Table
ALL-OF-THEM!

C-SPAN

As a steady viewer
I know how hard you try to balance programming (ie, left, right, middle & so-called independent) The only situation where your efforts are futile, however, is "Journalist Roundtable (Friday 9.m.)" It seems no matter how they protest (me-thinks too loudly) that they (90%) are liberal social bent,

JUL 10 REC'D

JUL 13 ANS'D

not one is unable to hide their glee at any stress, change, or bad news for President Bush or Republican Congress members.

I do enjoy watching them squirm when a caller nails them on their bias while they (media) profess open-mindedness.

There must be in our great land a few journalists who if not more in tune with the America that elected a Republican president at least more middle-of-the-road. Media's job is to present un-washed all the important happenings in our world not to monopolize and twist the facts to fit their wild fantasy of the world.

Thank you
