

Dear Mr. Lamb:

7/1/99

I want to thank you for inviting Reed Irvine to be a guest on Washington Journal on May 21. I am a supporter of Accuracy in Media, and I was pleased to learn that Reed's appearance on C-SPAN significantly increased not only the number of those who are aware of AIM and its valuable work, but also the number of AIM members.

I also want to congratulate you on C-SPAN's 20th anniversary. You have done a great job in making your vision a reality. I agree with Reed that C-SPAN deserves to be known as the public broadcasting service that serves the public with outstanding unbiased public affairs programming but does not look to the taxpayers for financial support. We are indebted to you for your vision and leadership and to the cable industry for its generous gift of C-SPAN.

O. W., AIM
