Dear Mr. Lamb:

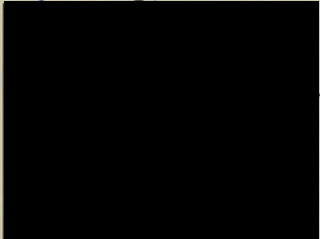

6 March 1992

I have been watching your fine program for some time now and sincerely wish to congratulate you for your selection of topics and especially for the balanced manner of your personal handling of callers and guests. You have a calm incisiveness that brings your listeners to the point without riling emotions, a rare talent.

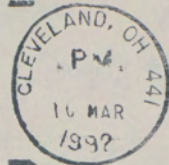

This morning I watched you with three(3) members of the Press, Pincus, Glassman, and Abramson. They are all three of a specific ethnic origin and representative of the Eastern Media of the USA. They are well-spoken and intelligent.

In the spirit of your reporting balance, perhaps you might consider another three(3) representatives. Might I suggest the following: Khalil Jahshan, Albert Mokhiber, and Edward Said? These are also intelligent and clear speaking persons who would give to your program another facet or two about Congress and the Executive Branches of government.

Thank you for a marvelous alternative to the "Pablum" presented by the Major Networks. Please keep up the good work!!

Sincerely,

██████████
