C-SPAN AND THE UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND AWARD
SCHOLARSHIP/INTERNSHIP TO ELENA C. FERNANDEZ

Washington, D.C., May 12, 1992 -- C-SPAN, the Cable Satellite Public Affairs Network based in Washington, D.C., and the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) have awarded the second annual tuition scholarship and summer internship to Elena C. Fernandez, a minority student from Dillard University in Louisiana.

The C-SPAN/UNCF Scholarship/Internship program is designed to expand educational and training opportunities for a selected student attending a UNCF institution. The ten-week internship is scheduled to begin June 17 and will provide Elena with an in-depth look at the way C-SPAN is programmed. The internship responsibilities will include researching issues, logging tapes, gathering information on possible guests and issues, attending editorial meetings, and more.

The Scholarship/Intern award was open to full-time students of UNCF's colleges and universities. The program will award Elena $1,500.00 toward her tuition and a summer-long internship in the programming department at C-SPAN. She will be housed at Howard University in Washington, D.C., and will also receive a weekly stipend.

Elena resides in New Orleans, Louisiana, and is currently a junior at Dillard University. Majoring in Mass Communications with a minor in Political Science, Elena still finds time to be Vice President of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. She is also actively involved with WDUB Radio, the Yearbook staff and D.U. RAD-Cox Cable.

Scholarship candidates were required to submit a resume and essay explaining how he/she would cover the 1992 presidential campaign as head of a major television network.

C-SPAN is currently available in 56 million households nationwide and worldwide via satellite. C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.

With record high school graduation rates, more African-Americans are knocking on the door of educational opportunity than ever before. Through the fund-raising efforts of the United Negro College Fund, 41 private, historically black colleges and universities are educating more than 51,000 students and helping keep those doors of opportunity open.
