

Please pardon the paper -

Sir:

Webster's dictionary states:

Journalism - the work of gathering, writing, editing, and publishing or disseminating news, as through newspapers and magazines or by radio or television.

I am a senior citizen, 89 years old, and I cannot remember any other president being so viciously attacked by the media since the Roosevelt era. That includes the wives.

Even when he accomplishes something good there is a negative "but". You print rumors and innuendos without substantiation and never retract when proven wrong. Remember the ~~haircut~~ haircut incident?

Most of you say you don't know much about the commodity trading business but you print more of the unlikely and very little about the possibility as noted by some of the experts.

You sit there and complacently admit that some of your colleagues are overzealous as if that is an excuse for opinionating news or untruthful news. Once printed the damage is done. Hurray for the freedom of the press.

Anything that sells more periodicals is your goal.

May I suggest that all of you so-called journalists return to school for refresher courses. Maybe then will they be able to understand what it takes to run a country like ours.

I like your program but it does seem to me that the bottom line is that the republicans still cannot accept the fact that a democrat~~is~~ was elected president and they will go to any means to make him a one-term.

Sincerely
