RE: Appearance of "B-1 Bob" 01 15 91 &
subsequent appearance

MAR 5 - ANST

C-Span:

It is my humble opinion that every dissenting caller, that is those persons whose views did not track with Dornan's, should submit a copy of their phone bill to C-Span for payment as "B-1 Bob" literally took over the broadcast segment that aired the night the "Desert Storm" operation began and the subsequent appearance also.

Dissenting callers were not even allowed to frame their questions before "B-1" (anticipating their opposition to his position) went on the attack either by asking them a question or just rudely talking all over them. When B-1 appears, why even bother to have a host? The hostess and host could have gone out, had dinner, taken a nap and he'd still be there talking when they returned. What about? Himself, of course! Is there anything in life (anybody's) that's more important than his exploits in the war (that he's still living); his uncle being the Tin Man; his sons and grandchildren and on and on ad nauseam. No matter what the issue, Dornan will cloud or clutter the issue with HIS exploits. We've heard it 9000 times.

May I suggest that the next time Dornan appears (if he must) don't take callers or in the alternative, have "B-1 Bob" provide an "800" number since he does all the talking anyway. This man should not have been allowed so much "grand standing time" and the worst thing was that he spent every caller's "dime" doing it. I tried desperately to get through on both of the above-mention occasions, but could not.

Very truly yours,
