Dear Mr. Lamb,

I have enjoyed the programs all day on C-Span - But, very upset, again, that Hally C. Shulman, in speaking as an authority on Dolly Madison, said that she was 'born in Philadelphia, Penn.' - This is the third time that I have tried to straighten out the facts (I am an amateur genealogist and care very much about the facts -)

Dolly Madison was born at Guilford County, N. C. - known also as Guilford College these days - She was a Quaker and the College there (Guilford College) is Quaker, too! -

Historians should not speak without doing their research - The facts are in the World Book and all such books - Causes one to lose faith in anything spoken about "history" - (I turned the t. v. off -) Later found Geo. Washington subject Great - Please correct such mistakes - Children do care -

In our "Family Bible", my 9. Great grandmother wrote "Uncle George A. Washington".

I hope that you will move on to better subjects in your morning program - The Republican's must live by the 'phone and we all know how they react to Democrats - // I know that I will never hold them in high regard - They are just as guilty of the same sins as Clinton -

We deserve a break! - Life is too short and sweet, to waste.

Even Pat Robertson agrees -
