Sir,

NOV 29 ANS'D

I am glad you flashed your address on TV programs soliciting viewer comments about your programming.

I subscribe to Southwest Cable TV here in San Diego, California, under which we receive about 25 or so cable TV stations. However, apart from a very few cable stations which I watch most frequently - A&E, BRAVO, PBS, DISC and occasional movies - my most favorite program is the Public Affairs station - C-SPAN. It is the ONLY program where those of us keenly intersted in the "affairs of state" as well as subjects of cultural interest - can view and listen to intelligent and articulate views on political and cultural subjects. I particularly appreciate Brian Lamb for his Booknotes interviews, journalists roundtables and many, many other shows too numerous to mention.

My No. 1 favorite C-SPAN program is the "Question Time" from the House of Commons in the U.K. Yesterday I was glued to the set thoroughly absorbed by Queen Elizabeth's annual State message to Parliament. It was fascinating!

So thanks you for continued intelligent .public affairs programming of C-SPAN, the only voice in this Wasteland of the USA worth listening to.

[REDACTED] Sincerely,
