Dear C-SPAN,

I am writing to urge you to have representatives of the Libertarian Party on again in the near future, preferably Andre Marrou, the presidential candidate.

I was looking forward to seeing the Libertarian Party's Chair, Mary Gingell, on your call-in program today. Unfortunately, I am captive to one of the cheapest cable companies in the free world -- TCI Cablevision. TCI blacked out C-SPAN in favor of a scrambled broadcast of the Olympics on a pay-per-view basis. This disappointed me greatly.

If you could possibly re-run the call-in program with Mary Gingell, perhaps during the weekend of August 1st and 2nd, between the hours of 2AM and 2PM, I would be very grateful.

It is sad that a national treasure like C-SPAN would get replaced by a pay-per-view sports program, especially in an election year, even if the sports happen to be the Olympics. Why C-SPAN? I mean, do we really need the home shopping channel?!!!!!!!

If you have any influence with TCI, please exert it and do what you can to see that it doesn't happen again in the future. Unfortunately, TCI doesn't seem to care what its customers think. They've got their little monopoly and that's all that they want. TCI has said that they would like to add C-SPAN 2, but instead they take away C-SPAN! It's an outrage.

I hope you will consider my request. Keep up the great work!

Thanks!

Sincerely,
