Dear Brian -

Your special in Dallas was great - including tour of Perot "museum". Information about NAFTA and introduction of Perot/Choate book giving gory details was very helpful.

Isn't it interesting that Clinton (the NEW Democrat) has picked up torch from Bush to shove NAFTA down the collective throats of all working, tax-paying Americans? Benedict Arnold faced a firing squad for less!

Benedict Clinton is about to use both feet for target practice again! Ruger will not be able to St. Bernard this one - lose, lose any way it goes. Also fascinating that Dole is trying to commit political suicide (with his presidential aspirations) by going out on a limb for NAFTA - and still saying "I would draw it as a cartoon if I had time today."

Please keep on asking journalists if they have read NAFTA text (or Perot/Choate book?) and if they favor or not. It is mind-boggling, trying to analyze where their script may be coming from. Hope Perot/Choate book contains info on the several media companies that stand to gain if NAFTA passes approval.

Pat Buchanan and Kitchin's interviews were very good and politically well-balanced - perfect 180° philosophy. Only sour note was the apology to Clintonites. No one ever apologizes for having all Clinton lap-dogs on a chew. My scoring was PRO=14; ANTI=3 1/2; OTHER 2 1/2; H. Stem anatomy = 0. (?)

Pat Buchanan also talked about the CFR, which relieves me no end. When callers mention CFR, TC or "shadow government" to other hosts or hostesses they try to ignore the subject. Can't say as I blame them. Last year someone gave me a chart during the election and my reaction was one eyebrow lots higher than the other. Did put the chart by TV controller in order to keep an open mind. Over time I began to check names, titles, companies, etc. until it began to resemble a nightmare plot for a Robert Ludlum novel. After obtaining copy updated I found Slick Willie had not changed the pattern, only exacerbated it. (Am enclosing both charts for your opinion with advance apology if you already have copies.) No doubt you saw David Rockefeller touting NAFTA on McLaughlin show last week!

Your help in getting both sides of NAFTA story told well is really appreciated. If you ever get this far from Wash, it would be my pleasure to treat you to best K.C. steak or BBQ in town. That should not exceed lobbying limits.

From the finally dried out Heartland -

 P.S. Sorry about dribbles on 1st page - no time to re-copy if I get to P.O. today.
