

Why don't you open your phone lines at unscheduled times (to avoid the organized callers) on days when the House is not in session, and invite your viewers to call and tell you honestly what they think of C-Span's coverage of current events and your over-all programming? You regularly present critics of the media and everything + everybody else. Why not take a good look at yourselves for a change?

VERMILION, OH 44089

The C-Span Networks
400 N. Capital St. N.W. Suite 650
Washington, D.C. 20001