Re: Brian Lamb, C-span's outstanding Commentator
Gentleman:

Just a short note to state how much I appreciate Brian Lamb's presence on C-span.

He is the equal of Larry King of CNN in my opinion, and in some ways better. No one else compares with Mr. Lamb.

I appreciate his incisive questions,
his basic integrity, intelligence, decency
and sensitivity to all people.

I don't even look at ABC, NBC
or CBS with their "talking head" (puppet)
type commentators anymore, except for movies.

I simply set my dial on my T-V for C-span and leave it there almost all day.

Brian Lamb's section of C-span's programming is what I really look forward to seeing. He is like a voice of sanity in an almost insane society.

I wish C-span's Management would increase the frequency of Brian's appearances on C-span during their daily schedule.

I appreciate C-span very much.

Sincerely
