C-SPAN'S VIDEO WORKSHOP AND LESSON PLAN TIP TEACHERS ON HOW TO USE "NEW FACES OF WASHINGTON" COVERAGE IN THE CLASSROOM

Washington, D.C., December 7, 1992--As the Clinton Administration takes over the White House and 122 new legislators arrive in Washington, C-SPAN gives teachers new tools to introduce students to the new faces of Washington and to show the executive and legislative transition processes at work.

C-SPAN's "New Faces of Washington" coverage will include a special ninety-minute program airing every Sunday throughout the month of January at 1:00 PM (ET)/10:00 AM (PT) with the week's most significant developments in the 103rd Congress and the new Administration, as well as daily Live Viewer Call-Ins, one-on-one interviews and roundtables. Resources available to educators are:

- * "New Faces of Washington: A Video Workshop for Teachers"--A first-ever eight-minute vignette with programming information and teaching tips that will air on January 4 and 11, 1993 at 6:35 AM (ET)/3:35 AM (PT) before Short Subject.
- * "New Faces of Washington: Classroom Activities"--A two-page lesson plan for high-school teachers available by calling C-SPAN's Educators' Hotline at (800) 523-7586.

C-SPAN is available in 58.3 million households nationwide and around the world via satellite. C-SPAN is privately funded to serve the public by America's cable television companies.
