Thank you for showing the entire Promise Keepers rally on Oct 4th.

I had been painting on the porch and came in for a "little break", turned on C-Span, and sat there through the whole presentation.

Yes, my husband was there and yes, I am one of the most blessed wives in America today. We have been married 34 years, and it just gets better & better.

When a man turns his life over to Jesus Christ and allows Him to guide and direct his path and puts his wife the number 2 priority, results are far reaching.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for allowing the America public to witness what Promise Keepers
