Dear Sir —

I hope the enclosed letter (copy) of one I sent to The Oregonian will be a partial answer to your many callers that call anyone who disagrees with our President as "hate-mongers" "right-wingers" and the religious coalition, etc, etc.

This is very disturbing to me as I'm none of the above, and neither are my many friends) who are concerned about our nation —

[REDACTED]
and I certainly want our Great Nation to survive —
Enjoy your program —

To the Editor / OR "In My Opinion"

I was touched when I heard a portion of Mother Teresa's message to the National Prayer Breakfast held in Washington, DC. But, I was really touched when I read the full text of her remarks on page 11 of the Sunday Oregonian (May 22/94).

I watched President Clinton's face as she was giving her address, and he was moved! It showed in his face....but not for long!. I was sorry, for instead of the remarks he made, he should have said: "I take your remarks seriously and I think our nation should re-think our position on abortion". He, in my opinion, would have become a real LEADER at that moment, and we, as a nation, would have welcomed his change of direction.

I am a listener to the 'C-Span call-in shows' (Brian Lamb) and I have been concerned about hearing so many callers referring to those of us who are supposed to HATE the Clintons. It is not HATE, but there are many of us that differ with the way the present administration is taking us down the wrong road.

Our FIRST introduction to President Clinton's philosophy was the gay agenda. I am not a gay basher, but God does not smile on any of our sins (and it is a sin), but so is stealing, gossiping, fornication, lying, adultery, maliciousness, envy, murder, debate, deceit, disobedient to parents, etc. I'm sure if we look closely enough we can all find a sin that will fit us.

Then SECONDLY, comes abortion and who can spell it out better than Mother Teresa, and I quote a few sentences:

"....I feel that the greatest destroyer of peace today is abortion, because it is a war against the child...a direct killing of the innocent child...murder by the Mother herself. And if we accept that a Mother can kill even her own child, how can we tell other people not to kill one another..."

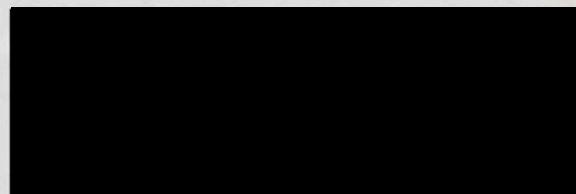

"Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching the people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want. That is why the greatest destroyer of love and ~~the~~ peace is abortion".

Then Health Care comes along as number THREE. We, who think abortion and homosexuality is morally wrong are going to have to pay for both regardless of our principles. This is not freedom....this is bondage!

How have we gotten so far off course? The very fabric of our homes are being destroyed. And yet, President and Mrs. Clinton are soooooo interested in the family. I am told that the First Lady has devoted part of her life protecting the rights of children, but her concern for the weakest of the ~~weak~~ (the unborn child) is killed and thrown away.

I am not a Catholic, as is Mother Teresa...but, I am a Christian and I share the concerns of her and her Church. This is not HATE, but it certainly is disagreement with the direction our Nation is being taken. I resent the Democrats and the liberal press calling it HATE.

God has preserved His Word and our Nation and He's given us the fortitude to learn and grow into the kind of people our forefathers stood for, but we cannot achieve this if we ignore all the many road blocks. God help us!!!!
