Dear Mr. Lamb:

Many, many thanks for your special program with Ross Perot. At last someone allows us to see Mr. Perot up close and personal, and maintains an objective, even-handed approach to the interview.

I've really liked a number of the interviews you've conducted. Your questions are very good. You understand the meaning of the term "interview," and don't interject your own "stuff" into the conversation.

I believe Mr. Perot (and he's certainly not alone in this) has been treated very unfairly by the press. Thanks for tipping the scales a little in the other direction.

Sincerely
[REDACTED]
