

[REDACTED]
Burlingame, Ca94010 PHONE [REDACTED]

4-20-84

C-SPAN
Suite 155, 400 North Capitol Street
N.W. Washington DC., 20001

Dear C-SPAN:

I watch C-SPAN because I love America and want to know what is going on. C-SPAN shows me live coverage of the U.S. House of Representatives, the daily events in Washington DC., and some of the finest talk- and call-in shows I've seen. And I am a talk-show nut!

But I keep wondering ... For example I wonder who will be the next Attorney General under the Reagan administration? So I keep tuning to C-SPAN, fully expecting to see the Edwin Meese hearings, from gavel to gavel.

And I keep tuning... and tuning... and tuning ... in vain! And I keep wondering: What the hell's going on here? Would C-SPAN have shown, for example, the Army-McCarthy Hearings, or the Watergate Hearings--from gavel to gavel I mean? And why does C-SPAN show, and sometimes even repeat, so much stuff of relatively little interest, and NOT the Meese hearings? ...

Or have I been missing them? And if so, why doesn't C-SPAN publish more complete schedules of its fare!

Still, some C-SPAN programs are terrific and I am delighted they are there for me to watch and learn from! But, increasingly, I do keep wondering: Who owns this channel? ... Who chooses what I get to watch? ... What special interest group is at work here? ... And am I not, very cleverly, being propagandized towards the right? ...

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
BURLINGAME, CA 94010
[REDACTED]

C-SF
SUITE 155
400 NO. C
N.W. WASHI, DC. 20001

Needs a response
P.

CORREO AEREO

[REDACTED]
BURLINGAME, CA 94010
[REDACTED]

PAR AVION VIA AIR MAIL CORREO AEREO

C-SPAN
SUITE 155,
400 NO. CAPITOL ST.
N.W. WASHINGTON, D.C. 20001