ON LABOR DAY WEEKEND, C-SPAN AIRS
"A CONVERSATION WITH ..." AND "AN AMERICAN PROFILE"

Washington, D.C., August 31, 1993 -- On Labor Day, Monday, September 6, at 8 AM (ET), C-SPAN will air "A Conversation With..." three governors. The 90-minute program, which re-airs on Monday at 8 PM and midnight (ET), will feature interviews with Democratic Govs. Howard Dean (D-Vt.), Bruce King (D-NM) Marc Racicot (R-Mont.).

Gov. Dean, a medical doctor, served three terms as lieutenant governor before he took his current office in 1991. Gov. King was first elected to his current office in 1970, after serving five consecutive terms in the New Mexico House of Representatives. He was re-elected governor in 1979 and again in 1990. Gov. Racicot, previously the attorney general in Montana, was elected governor last fall.

Also scheduled for Labor Day weekend is "An American Profile," which will air Sunday, September 5, from 6:00 - 8:00 PM (ET). The first one-hour interview will focus on Ben Chavis, executive director of the NAACP. The following hour-long interview will feature a discussion with Ralph Reed, executive director of the Christian Coalition.

C-SPAN's "An American Profile" program, on selected weekends and holidays, airs interviews with two individuals from different political perspectives. The guests are interviewed in alphabetical order.

C-SPAN is funded entirely by America's cable television companies as a public service. C-SPAN is currently available in 59.6 million households nationwide and worldwide via satellite.
