Att: Brian:

I have watched C. Span for some time and until the last year you seemed to have balanced programs. Today was the pits. It was four against the Clinton administration. You have shown where your allegiances are, so that leads me to my questions. You ask callers very personal questions, such as, who did you vote for, so my question is, How much is the Republican Party paying you to participate in the bringing down of the Clinton presidency? I know Russ Limbaugh is being sponsored by Roger Ayles and the Republican party & it seems you are their C span advocate.

I think it is un American to throw out smear & accusations with no proof to back them up. This is our country & this is OUR president. In shocked you would aid and abet such allegations as you let the reporters get away with, or worse join in with them. I'm real disappointed in you. You should unwrap yourself from the flag and be an unbiased moderator,

Think about what you are being used for. There are a lot of good thinking people out here that don't call & shout all time, but we do see through the antics that go on.
