C-Span,

I have been a regular viewer of your weekday morning Call-in show (as well as other C-Span-covered events) since I first got cable in the 80's. You get a lot of callers saying you're too far left or too far right. Well, my political and social views are left of extreme left, but I feel your network has a good balance of programming. I watch the right-wingers events because I want to know what they are up to. I watch the left-wingers events because I support them. I like it when you cover Minister Farrakhan's speeches because I like to hear him speak. I don't watch the Moscow news because it bores me. I like the bus visits to landmarks. I'm bored by your programs directed at teenagers, but that is very important for our youth and I'm pleased that it is available. I like "Booknotes" and I have gone out and purchased several books I heard about on that show.

The only thing I want to see more of is Native American issues and Native Americans on your panels now and then. (Not that turncoat Campbell, though.)
Thanks.
