

Give me a break C-SPAN. I've watched your channel now through most of this election and swallowed Lamb's Clinton commercials thinking it would improve but when you put a person on who tells the country to watch football because to him it's got more importance than presidential debates I've got to protest.

Your coverage is slanted (admit it or not) toward Clinton. Lamb's attitude when someone stands for Bush or Perot is to sneer or just plain cut them off. OK I know Clinton has his vote so let's move on and be fair.

I'm proud I've voted regularly all the people should be. Let's see what can be done about clean unbiased, unslanted if you will, pure Journalism not more free commercials.

P.S. Perot
Won the 1st
Debate, hands down.
