Hello C-Span,

How did princess Di touch the people in such a big way and so many people?

Di was treated the same way so many women are treated by their "Husband"

Would Di have married Dodie?
I don't think so, and if she had married Dodie it would have been another mistake. Dodie was not trust worthy. Dodie had his own reason for wanting to marry Di and it was not because he loved her, it was because Di could give him something he wanted that no other woman could give him.

I am not Jewish but I love the Jewish people, a Jewish friend of mine once told me that when you have a person you can trust as a wife or a husband, you have something worth more than all the riches of this world.

All my life I voted for a democrat until after 84 when I took a good look at what the democrats stood for "themselves" it was not what was best for our country and all of our people.

it was 'I' 'me' more power more money.

The democrats are out no way will the people of this country vote them back in power.

The Whole world has changed and now the people of all the world must also change.

There is a trap I hope the republicans do not fall into, "The God trap" most people do not believe in God, If they did this ^{or would} world would be better, think about it.
I'm 70 yrs old

When I reach the point of so much pain, I wish for a fast death, at this point that scares many people, but in time our leaders will have to face this.

Take a honest look at the starving children.

Now look at the money spent on those at the end of life that money can't save, yet money is spent while children wait.
