

Dear Mr. Lamb, 3-10-95

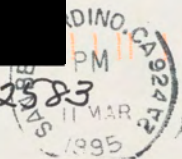

I'm not sure that's your last name's spelling, so please forgive any errors.

I'm not happy with your "Journal" newspaper show in the A.M. I get up at 4:30 A.M. to watch, but frankly, I don't like being read to and let's face it - the L.A. & N.Y. Times are always predictable.

Having said that, I still will watch, hoping you take more phone calls. We are being besieged with talking heads all of the time. I prefer to listen to fellow viewers all over the country. Is there any way you can stop some of your guests from hogging their talking time. Some of them never seem to breathe.

How about a ref's whistle?

San Jacinto, CA 92583

Newer
Brian Lamb
C-Span
400 N. Capitol ST., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20001