Re: C-Span and the Election Process

Gentlemen:

C-Span is not serving the people or the Country by giving the media credibility and excessive time to disrupt the democratic process.

Brian Lockman, Journalist Roundtable, exemplified this in degrading callers who were trying to complain to his media guest about the assault on Clinton - saying to the callers that they were interested in the subject. You, Mr Lockman, and your guest were obsessed and you injected it constantly during the campaign!

Unlike your callers, the media has the forums and the capabilities to unleash its manufactured news, inaccurate polls and analyst, back page news, unreported news, etc - all the power to manipulate opinion and obstruct candidates seeking elections.

By giving the media excessive time and credibility, you made a mockery of democracy and supported the attempt to kill another candidate.

I pay for C-Span through purchasing cable — I can buy propoganda everywhere! Show some integrity or get out.

I am asking Congress to consider
some alternatives.

yours sincerely,
