Dear C-Span,

2707-90

Yesterday I watched your program with three such right-wing republicans that they would have been at home in Hitler's Germany.

When asked about the one-sided view of your guests, we were told that today we would hear from the "other side."

Two of your guests — from N.O.W. and Common Cause — stated that they were nonpartisan. Is this really your idea of balancing opposing views?

Couldn't you find three liberals? I think you owe it to us to try.

Bush and the executive branch are dominating your programs to a great extent.

Also, on some of your programs outrageously inaccurate statements go unchallenged. I do not think this contributes to public education.

I watch many of your programs with ~~disappointment~~.

Sincerely,
