

GREETINGS FROM
H-O-L-L-A-N-D-I-I-I!

Hi MR. LAMB!

My family & friends are enjoying the Democratic Convention via satellite thanks to C-SPAN & Sky Channel. Although it's way past my bed time when the proceedings are transmitted, it's worth staying up!

Please, please, be so kind as to send me a copy of CONVENTIONAL WISDOM and 5, yes five, Republican buttons.

Kindly, bill me at the address mentioned below. Thank-you!

My buddy, Shaun [redacted], is impressed with your accent. According to him, you speak without a single trace of Irish accent. I told him that as a newscaster you must have taken up elocution lessons. Am I right, sir?!

Dad said that you handled the international phone link-up pretty well & your presentation of the live program simply remarkable!

Mom thinks you're great! — And would love to have your autographed pix plus a press info kit on C-SPAN & whatever P.R. material you can spare. I hope you would grant her this request & make her wish come true. Thanks a million!

My Dutch neighbours find you to be very articulate & your diction — fantastic! They all could understand you perfectly well!

Tell me, Mr. Lamb, since you're that good have the three ~~my~~ major networks & CNN made any offers to you, yet?!

Finally, C-SPAN is becoming a TV household name in Europe — so, continue the good work C-SPAN and keep it up, Brian!

We all look forward to C-SPAN's GOP Convention coverage & we hope to see you again in Mid-August. Until then, take good care & God bless!
